Judge Kollar-Kotally,

I'm a concerned citizen who believes Microsoft is being let off easy after amassing billions of dollars of illegal profits. Every court has ruled that Microsoft violated anti-trust laws, but the proposed final judgment falls far short of punishing Microsoft adequately. Not only does Microsoft retain its ill-gotten profits, but there's no protection in the settlement from future anti-trust violations. Microsoft's distribution of its products to schools is nothing more than an expansion of the company's monopoly.

I urge you to rule against the proposed settlement.

Respectfully submitted,
